

Rose Country Retriever Club

Release and Hold Harmless Agreement

I have read, understand and agree to each of the following:

I shall strictly comply with Rose Country Retriever Club's (the "Club's") rules and guidelines concerning use of leased training grounds located in Smith County, Texas (the "training grounds"). If I fail or refuse to comply with the Club's rules and guidelines, I understand and agree that my training ground privileges may be revoked, suspended, or terminated immediately.

No person or entity has made any representations or warranties (of any kind whatsoever) to me concerning the condition of the training grounds. I know that while on the training grounds, I, my spouse, family, guests, my dogs, and my property shall be exposed to dangerous risks, conditions, and hazards (by way of example only: poisonous snakes, insects, erosion, wild and/or diseased animals, etc.) which might exist on or near the training grounds. I knowingly and willingly assume all known and unknown risks and responsibilities.

RELEASE: In exchange for the right to enter and use the training grounds, I hereby unconditionally release the Club, the owner of the training grounds, their respective agents, employees, members, officers, successors and assigns of and from all liability, claims, demands, causes of action and damages of every nature whatsoever.

INDEMNITY: Additionally, I agree to protect, hold harmless, and indemnify the Club, the owner of the leased property and their respective agents, employees, members, officers, successors, and assigns from all liability, claims, demands, causes of action and damages.

I have signed this Agreement voluntarily and agree that if any portion of this Agreement is deemed legally invalid, that all other provisions of this Agreement shall remain valid and enforceable.
